

Semi-Weekly Bourbon News.

Independent and Democratic—Published from the Happy Side of Life—for the Benefit of Those Now Having Breath in Their Bodies. Price, $2.00 for One Year, or, $2,000 for 1,000 Years—CASH!

II. PARIS, BOURBON COUNTY, KENTUCKY: FRIDAY, AUGUST 10, 1883.

NO. 152.

A Stolen Poem.

There are lots of happy news to tell! We've sent away the doctor—Mother's doing mighty well, baby's name is Proctor.

Going to the circus "bofe" times?

Wednesday was worth $1,000 a day.

Going to the circus to-day? If not.

At Carlisle has shipped 421 bush-berries this season.

Bourbon fair played in opposition to camp-meeting this week.

At the camp-meeting, what? Lexington and Bourbon fairs.

Shooter shot Geo. Patterson fatally, Louisville, Sunday, and fled.

Stacks of hay were burned for John near Danville, Tuesday night.

At Co.'s circus is followed by a lot who do the "greeners" up nicely.

Over the K. C. is increasing so that train is to be put on the road.

Way Orphan School will give an to Old Point Comfort, August.

L. MERRAUGH has on a special ally coolers" during these circus.

Order, for killing his brother-in-law, has been pardoned by the State.

Dollars taken for one year, or even subscription to this paper, at par.

Don't forget it.

At Fox, a butcher in the employ of Co., in Lexington, dropped dead after house Wednesday.

In torrents for an hour and a half, at Winchester Wednesday, while at the Lexington there wasn't a drop.

At Lexington says that the drouth has injured the crop of young jack-obs and that but a few will be raised.

At Holiar, who died near the Fayette, was buried at the Paris Wednesday. Elder G. E. Sweeney.

At Dr. J. A. Blaydes, formerly of Mt. Vernon, but now of Hot Springs, Ark., got three times and dangerously wounded days ago.

GIBSON wants the voters in the "ner," who went to the circus at Lexington Monday, notified that there will be here to-day.

A white quartz and gold bound watch, charm at the Parks Hill camp-meeting Sunday. The finder will leave the same at Bierbower & Co., at Maysville, and get reward.

FOUND—A valuable gold breast-pin was found on the Winchester Pike, which the owner can have by proving property and paying for this advertisement. Apply at BURTON & HIBLER'S. aug10-3t

Frank Fullilove married Miss Lulu True, of Louisville, at Aberdeen, Ohio, Monday. This is a Truitt Fullilove affair just and it may be a little truly and fullilove affair after awhile.

ARENCE DEMAREE, a fifteen-year-old lad, of Louisville, experimented with a match a handful of powder. He will not have a black in the face now when they get him in the near future.

A glorious rain fell in this precinct Wednesday afternoon. It came just in the nick of time to save all vegetation from perishing. It is, the corn, tobacco, grass and vegetables are badly damaged.

THE Lexington Press wants the Chamber of Commerce to resolve in behalf of a change of the running of the K. C. trains. The Press doesn't like this bottled train arrangement on the "Lexington Branch."

GROVE KENNEDY has promised to be good the future, and has gone home to sell out of the country. He attributes all of trouble and meanness to whiskey.

At Louisville mail for this place, still lingers in Lexington three and a half hours, rather than there's any need for. Who's it? We hope that General Mail sent French will look into this matter.

At the spot where Dr. Robbins was shot near near Station—Apparently the friends of Dr. Robbins and Smart, in defiance of each other. So says a man who lives near there.

At noon Wednesday, a man named William Collins was run over by a train at the Lexington Central freight depot in Lexington. One of his legs was mashed off. He was taken to the hospital and the entire train over him.

At the top of the Crawford House to go to Cincinnati. You will be highly cared for, and the rates will be reasonable. Don't forget the place—16th and Walnut streets, one square from Mountain Square.

At the residence, a copper distillery, and crop, farming implements, etc., of Hugh, near Shawhan's Station. Here's a place for tobacco men to get land in large or small lots.

At the residence, a man was robbed of a book containing $20 and $400 of notes, at the circus at Carlisle, Ky. The thief was caught and taken to the police station. He was recognized as a bunko who did some robbing at that place.

At the residence, a man was shot in the head by a friend of his, and the man was taken to the hospital. The man who shot him was taken to the police station.

At the residence, a man was shot in the head by a friend of his, and the man was taken to the hospital. The man who shot him was taken to the police station.

At the residence, a man was shot in the head by a friend of his, and the man was taken to the hospital. The man who shot him was taken to the police station.

At the residence, a man was shot in the head by a friend of his, and the man was taken to the hospital. The man who shot him was taken to the police station.

At the residence, a man was shot in the head by a friend of his, and the man was taken to the hospital. The man who shot him was taken to the police station.

At the residence, a man was shot in the head by a friend of his, and the man was taken to the hospital. The man who shot him was taken to the police station.

At the residence, a man was shot in the head by a friend of his, and the man was taken to the hospital. The man who shot him was taken to the police station.

At the residence, a man was shot in the head by a friend of his, and the man was taken to the hospital. The man who shot him was taken to the police station.

At the residence, a man was shot in the head by a friend of his, and the man was taken to the hospital. The man who shot him was taken to the police station.

At the residence, a man was shot in the head by a friend of his, and the man was taken to the hospital. The man who shot him was taken to the police station.

At the residence, a man was shot in the head by a friend of his, and the man was taken to the hospital. The man who shot him was taken to the police station.

At the residence, a man was shot in the head by a friend of his, and the man was taken to the hospital. The man who shot him was taken to the police station.

At the residence, a man was shot in the head by a friend of his, and the man was taken to the hospital. The man who shot him was taken to the police station.

At the residence, a man was shot in the head by a friend of his, and the man was taken to the hospital. The man who shot him was taken to the police station.

At the residence, a man was shot in the head by a friend of his, and the man was taken to the hospital. The man who shot him was taken to the police station.

At the residence, a man was shot in the head by a friend of his, and the man was taken to the hospital. The man who shot him was taken to the police station.

At the residence, a man was shot in the head by a friend of his, and the man was taken to the hospital. The man who shot him was taken to the police station.

At the residence, a man was shot in the head by a friend of his, and the man was taken to the hospital. The man who shot him was taken to the police station.

At the residence, a man was shot in the head by a friend of his, and the man was taken to the hospital. The man who shot him was taken to the police station.

At the residence, a man was shot in the head by a friend of his, and the man was taken to the hospital. The man who shot him was taken to the police station.

At the residence, a man was shot in the head by a friend of his, and the man was taken to the hospital. The man who shot him was taken to the police station.

At the residence, a man was shot in the head by a friend of his, and the man was taken to the hospital. The man who shot him was taken to the police station.

At the residence, a man was shot in the head by a friend of his, and the man was taken to the hospital. The man who shot him was taken to the police station.

At the residence, a man was shot in the head by a friend of his, and the man was taken to the hospital. The man who shot him was taken to the police station.

At the residence, a man was shot in the head by a friend of his, and the man was taken to the hospital. The man who shot him was taken to the police station.

At the residence, a man was shot in the head by a friend of his, and the man was taken to the hospital. The man who shot him was taken to the police station.

At the residence, a man was shot in the head by a friend of his, and the man was taken to the hospital. The man who shot him was taken to the police station.

At the residence, a man was shot in the head by a friend of his, and the man was taken to the hospital. The man who shot him was taken to the police station.

At the residence, a man was shot in the head by a friend of his, and the man was taken to the hospital. The man who shot him was taken to the police station.

At the residence, a man was shot in the head by a friend of his, and the man was taken to the hospital. The man who shot him was taken to the police station.

At the residence, a man was shot in the head by a friend of his, and the man was taken to the hospital. The man who shot him was taken to the police station.

At the residence, a man was shot in the head by a friend of his, and the man was taken to the hospital. The man who shot him was taken to the police station.

At the residence, a man was shot in the head by a friend of his, and the man was taken to the hospital. The man who shot him was taken to the police station.

At the residence, a man was shot in the head by a friend of his, and the man was taken to the hospital. The man who shot him was taken to the police station.

COL. THOS. L. JONES' county scratched Knott some 400 votes. Thus 400 of Col. Jones' friends do him injury.

It is said that Dr. Ed. Ingels has the best colt in the county, which will be a "holly terror" soon. It is sired by Longfellow.

NICHOLAS COUNTY Democrats will have only five delegates in Convention for four years to come. A loss of two.—[Mercury.]

Rev. Lansing Burrows, D. D., pastor of the First Baptist Church, has offered his resignation of the charge, to take effect September 1st, at which time he wishes to accept the pastorate of the Baptist Church at Augusta, Georgia, from which he has received a call.

The following epitaph is described on a simple shaft in a Kentucky burying ground: "To my beloved consorts Sarah A., Sarah Y., Sarah Ann, as wives devoted, as mothers affectionate, as friends ever kind and true, I have loved them on earth, I will meet them in heaven."

CHARLES STEWART was killed at Georgetown Saturday night by Jack Goldsborough. Stewart was drunk and threatened to kill Goldsborough and others, and was following him with a knife. He was shot three times and instantly killed. The coroner's jury found a verdict of self-defense. Cause—whiskey and a woman.

Garth Fund Beneficiaries.

Old ones reaccepted yesterday: Wm. Ryan $75; Wm. Wadell, $50; D. Dunden, $50; Harry Boudin, $100; W. H. Howe, $50; J. M. Allen, $25; R. O. Smith, $50; J. L. Holleran, $25; Thos. Arkle, $50; J. L. Gory, $50; C. Popp, $50; S. S. See, $225; W. E. Arnold, $225; J. W. Simpson, $50. New ones accepted: O. E. Fox, $100; Seymour Wilson, $50; Ollie Carter, $50; Lawrence Hukilli, $50; J. W. Wornall, $50; Geo. Horine, $50; H. L. Cunningham, $50; H. F. Turner, $200; Harry Stout, $50.

THE first of the six elegant coaches which the Kentucky Central Railroad is to have arrived here yesterday. It is a beauty, and is said to be the most elegant coach that ever passed through here. The exterior is very attractive, while the interior is perfectly exquisite. The seats are beautiful and, at the same time it is a luxury to sit on them. The other five are badly needed just at this time, for the excursion travel over the road at present is taxing the road for its utmost facilities, but the management is doing "as best it can," as Bro. Barnes says.

THE Ladies' Missionary Society of the Christian Church of this place, have forwarded $100 to Eld. Taylor Sharrard, at Gunnison, Colorado, to be applied towards building a church. Mrs. John Stuart, one of the active members of this benevolent association, who once lived at Gunnison, takes a great pride in helping to contribute this mite towards the erection of a church of her own faith, at her old home. The grounds have been donated Eld. Sharrard for that purpose, provided the church shall be erected by next June.

AUGUST 3 1883
Our champion Editor of the borbon news Sir if you please give us this verse in the news & oblige yours vary truly
On June the 26 1883
There was a distillery
Complete out fit neatly
Bound in hay & 9 beer tubs
These were found by the marshal
Whats called high fall
Cave 8 miles north east
Of camp wood Co Ky
This were found by the marshal
And peace were made with it
And who did it belong to
The Result no owner Reply

THE editor of this paper has moved his residence (not his office), from Railroad Avenue to the "Old Georgetown Road," (not the new Georgetown pike). He now smells sweetly in one of the new and pretty little brick cottages recently erected by Capt. J. M. Thomas. Persons desiring a suppression of the liveliest news items or their dog mats dragged on and cannot wait until business hours, will find the editor there when he is not securing the town for news items and refusing to give free puffs. If you fail to find the place, ring the door bells of John Hanly or "Shiner" Hite and inquire, or take a seat on the steps of the colored Christian church and ask your eyes exactly opposite that first pretty little cottage is the place.

Confederate Reunion.

TO THE MEMBERS OF THE ORPHAN BRIGADE: COMRADES—The next reunion of our Brigade will be held at Lexington, Ky., Sept. 5, 1883. The interest manifested in our last meeting at Blue Lick Springs is a guarantee that the coming one will be a splendid success. Lexington is very accessible, and containing among other objects of tender regard to Kentuckians, the graves of Breckinridge and Hanson. It will be a fitting thing after the hearty greeting to visit those sacred spots and once more do homage to their memory.

The First Kentucky Brigade, consisting of the Second, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth and Ninth Kentucky, and the Forty-first Alabama Regiments of Infantry, will meet this reunion in grand reunion. Brief addresses will probably be made by some of our comrades. We are endeavoring to have a number of the Forty-first Alabama present. All Confederate soldiers of Kentucky, and visiting soldiers of all arms and armies, are cordially invited to meet with us. Please inform our comrades. HERVEY McDOWELL, JNO. H. WELLER, Sec'y. Ch'm'n.

Dwyer Bros.' Miss Woodford was defeated in a race at Monmouth Park Tuesday, by Gov. Bowles' Empress. The recent defeat too, of Geo. Kenney by Drake Carter, makes the Dwyer Bros.' stable less formidable. There are three great stakes to be decided at Monmouth, August 11, 18 and 25. On August 11, Champion stakes, $250 each, $2,000 added, weight for age, without penalties, one and one-half miles. Eole, Monitor, Barnes and George Kenney are in the list. Miss Woodford is not, nor is Leonatus. Neither Barnes nor Kinney have met Eole or Monitor. It is not yet known whether the Dwyers will try for the Champion or wait for the Omnibus on the 18th. The Omnibus is for three-year-olds, $100 each; $10,000 added, one and one-half miles. The best known in the long list of 104 entries are Leonatus, Barnes, Geo. Kenney, Pizarro, Drake Carter, Empress and Kinglike. Miss Woodford was not entered. There are weight-penalties for winners of big stakes, and Leonatus and Barnes must carry 125 pounds each, while Pizarro will have 115, Kinglike 115, Drake Carter 115, and Empress 115.

Call at J. J. Shaw & Co.'s and see the Lightning self-sealing glass fruit jar—the best in America. 17178

PARKS' HILL CAMP-MEETING.

THE Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage preached Tuesday and Wednesday to about fifty preachers and 2,500 commoners at the Parks Hill Camp-meeting.

His sermon was on "Recognition in Heaven," deduced from the words "I shall go to Him." It was indeed a Gabriel-blow-your-horn-and-bell-me-in-quickly effort. It was very suggestive of the might-be-improved method over the old way of pulling for the other shore in squads of one or two, and to some slight degree a sustenance of the enthusiast who migrates for the other shore over the knock-down and drag-me-hither-to-my-slippers route. The old way of migrating one at a time from a family was too slow a method, which he thought could be improved on. And, in reality, it could too, provided that every member of a family was too old and useless to be of benefit here on earth. But then they are not, though. The younger members do not care to adopt that improved method of going; and in fact are loth to go before taking in all of this good world that they can.

His ideas of recognition were also slightly at variance with reason as well as justice. Who wants to be recognized in Heaven on the sole strength of having been wounded in soul here on earth? Who wants the sorrowful heart wounds healed by death and happiness in the great beyond of recognition by his or her friends? Would it not be more appropriate that a shining light of christian splendor should be reflected in the New Jerusalem for recognition by not only dear home friends but billions and quintillions of friends from all quarters of the globe?

But we will not argue the subject with this eminent divine. We have n't that infatuated Scotch-Irish brogue and his splendid stock of dramatic gyrations to throw out with our dreamy thoughts for the captivation of the wary and watchful.

For a correct perspective of the eminent man who now holds public opinion in his clutches and toys at will with it like a child playing with a Christmas gift, we quote the following from the gifted pen of J. Soule Smith, the "Falcon" of the Cincinnati News-Journal:

"Talmage is an unbecomingly man, but he can't help that. He has the body of Jonah and the mouth of the whale, and it is difficult when he is speaking to determine whether he is trying to swallow himself or to throw himself up. These things are as natural to him as his bald head, or his expression of countenance, like a shovel-nosed shark. I like him the better for his general aspect, for it is about time for the ugly men to stand together. But I don't like to see the Gospel gyrating around like a hard kicking spell of St. Vitus' dance, and sending the goppler on a grand bounce every time he spits out a mouthful of it. He prances about like he was trying to shoot hash at the angels and a gang of sinners. The quiet, magnetic power is wanting in him. Everything must go on the Jericho order, with a vast amount of smashed crockery ware and hallooing and he leaps about and flutters his blackburnian jaws like he was auctioning off a lot of damaged souls and was afraid the devil would rush in and make a bid before he closed out the lot."

CAMP NOTES.

The little fountain in the hollow, is no longer filled with blessings, but has a fine stock of misadventure.

Wanted to know—if the Lexington girl who wore a tea spoon for a breastpin, is any kin to Ben Butler?

The big row was a noticeable feature on Sunday—Dr. Dills, Sam Riley, Von Prather and Bruce Champ.—[Mercury.]

Only three or four of those old flashy and frey red "Joels" were carried over from last season and worn at the present meeting.

A regular Philadelphia dude was the principal attraction on the grounds. He eclipsed everything on the grounds in the dude line.

Over a dozen new cottages of a very improved style have been added to the grounds, and twenty more could have been rented had they been put up.

In warping the Rev. Talmage into a preacher, a very fine tragedian was taken from the stage—one that would have made Booth the quail in his boots.

The camp was liberally attended from people on the Richmond branch. One of the prettiest ladies in the camp being one of the number from Richmond.

Black, brown and mode stockings are worn throughout the camp—the flashy red, blue and brown stripes having been entirely superseded by the dark, solid colors.

Dr. West, preached one hour and twenty-five minutes Tuesday. If he increases the length of his sermons in the same proportion, he'll preach all day by next Sunday.

Before the meeting next year, an acre more of land will be added to the camp, on which will be erected a large and conveniently arranged hotel, for both permanent and transient visitors.

A Lexington girl who held a handkerchief to her bleeding nose, had to let down the car window at our depot Sunday, for a Paris boy insisted on keeping up what he supposed to be a flirtation racket.

Bob Goggins, grocery clerk of this city, became infatuated with a little Winchester blonde on the train coming from the camp, and introduced himself by giving her a chicken leg and a piece of pie.

A camp-meeting religion that can stand the wear and tear of a densely crowded train coming home, is a good article, and ought to be canned for use next year. Our stock didn't keep well coming up Tuesday evening.

Ed. F. Flynn a handsome and beardless youth of twenty dear sweet June, was the stenographic reporter who took down Dr. Talmage's sermons for the Cincinnati Commercial-Gazette. Every girl in camp fell in love with him.

Just preceding the services by the Rev. Mr. Talmage, Tuesday, Col. Craddock caused merry twinkles to take place in over 200 pairs of eyes, by walking down the aisle with a bucket and sitting down on it—the open space upward. When he arose to engage in prayer, the bucket stuck to him and he had to pull it off with his hands.

There is a decided improvement (at least 100 per cent.) noticeable on the native element that used to be dubbed the "side show," which congregates from the surrounding country. Verily, the meeting has had a good effect in cultivating the morals, dress and general appearance of the people, besides proving a financial bonanza to the country for miles around.

To tell the naked truth stripped of all romance and funkynism, it is an awful hard day's work to stand the ram and jam on the cars and put in the balance of the day climbing up and down the hill for water, to say nothing of skrimishing for a dinner. Yes, it's a dry, dusty, hard day's work, and nothing to show up for it but the experience—which only lasts from Sunday to Sunday with the masses.

A 300 pounds preacher on a seat with two ladies in the train Wednesday afternoon and the aisle full of ladies on their feet, was one of the sights we saw. Also, we saw a man from the Richmond branch who positively refused to give his seat to a woman who stood in the aisle with a small babe in her arms. It would have been a good opportunity for several by-standers to have used a valise—and several of them were about ripe enough with anger and disgust to have done so, too.

SCINTILLATIONS.

—The Rev. Mr. Talmage is now enjoying a few days rest at the Blue Lick Springs.

—Miss Sophia Hallock, of Dakota, Ill., is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. S. B. Ewalt.

—The man who runs away with his mother-in-law must be fond of lectures.

—Dick Dorsey, formerly of this county, is now clerking in the Mt. Sterling post-office.

—Henry Butler has accepted a position in our freight depot as clerk under John Stewart.

—This city sent her regular quota to the camp-meeting, Sunday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

—Judge Hargis and family have gone to Rowan county to visit the Judge's father's family.

—Mrs. W. F. Champ and daughters, of Millersburg, are the guests of Harvey Hibler and wife.

—Benj. Vincent Tyler of Lexington an Attorney-At-Law is visiting John S. Smith of this place.

—Henry Coons will occupy one of Capt. Thomas' new cottages, and will be a near neighbor to the News.

—Two one-armed men applauded in a Stockholm theater by slapping their remaining hands together.

—Miss Lily Jones and her mother have gone on a two weeks' visit to friends at the Levee, Montgomery county.

—The boss liar of the season—the stay-at-home husband who writes his wife that he is awfully lonesome without her.

—The Bulletin says that two Maysville girls while picking blackberries, took a braying mule's voice to be that of a rain crow.

—The Rev. Mr. Stevenson, cornetist at the camp-meeting, spent the evening with friends at his old home here Wednesday evening.

—A lost child moved the sympathies of the assembly for a brief period, until brought upon the stand it was recognized and received by its parents.

—Rev. J. C. Morris has resigned the pastoral charge of the Fifth and Walnut streets Methodist church at Louisville, and will take up his residence in Denver, Colorado, at an early day.

—Miss Pickett, daughter of Eld. Joe Desha Pickett, of Frankfort, and the two Misses Desha, daughters of Gen. Desha, of Cynthiana, are the guests of J. W. Lucas and wife, and are attendants of the camp-meeting.

—The railroad items of the Cincinnati Enquirer has the following:

Conductor Bob Martin, of the Cincinnati New Orleans and Texas Pacific Road, is off for reasons unknown. Bob is a good fellow, and his many friends are sorry for this.

—Mrs. George Collier will leave Monday, for Binghamton, New York, in company with A. P. Allis and wife, who go East to buy goods. Mrs. Collier will spend a month with Mrs. Alice Armstrong, formerly Miss Alice McCabe, of Millersburg.

The Trader, Turfman, Farmer and Sportsman.

There are seventy-three entries to the Bourbon Fair lots up to date.

St. Julian's best time in three heats at Cleveland a few days ago, was only 2:17 1/2.

At J. T. Davis' sale of Alderney's at the fair grounds yesterday, 50 head averaged about $60.

Jersey jackets of net woolen goods in black and brown shades, were worn by the truly fashionable.

J. E. Clay bought a yearling merino buck in Texas, which sheared 16 pounds of wool. It cost $75 and freight.

A race between Leonatus and Barnes has been arranged for at the fall meeting of the Louisville Jockey Club.

The Fairbanks Scale Company offer a pair of platform scales, valued at $150, as a special premium at the Scott County Tobacco Fair.

W. S. Graham, of Fleming county, has returned from his trip to Spain, bringing with him twelve fine Spanish jacks for sale.

The pacer, Johnson, that created such a stir in Chicago sporting circles recently, has been sold by its owners to J. J. Cape, Racine, Wis., for $2,000.

Corn and cotton throughout Tennessee have been seriously injured by drouth, while in central Georgia the farmers are crying out "too much rain!"

The series of fifteen Short-horn cattle sales in the bluegrass region this Summer foots up the sum total as follows: 371 females averaging $286.60; 75 bulls averaging $165.80; the grand aggregate being $118,785.

The Lexington Fair Company offers a purse of $500 to be trotted for in the 22d class at their approaching exhibition, in lieu of the double team trot which failed to fill.

Nominations for the trot close August 20th.

At the Catholic Fair races Wednesday afternoon, Keller Thomas' Nannie won the 2:30 class with ease in three straight heats. In the 2:50 class Jack Hook's Mambrino Patehen won. In the 3:00 minute class Elgin's Bob Terrell won, and in the pacing race his gray filly Girdia won in 3:10. The time was from 2:40 to 3 minutes.

W. H. H. JOHNSON, Prop'r.

W. B. CONWAY, Clerk.

JOHN J. LONG, Prop'r.

JOHN J. LONG, Clerk.

JOHNSON HOUSE, MILLERSBURG, KY.

One square from the depot. Good Livery Stable Attached. The kindest attention given and guests made comfortable.

Good Sample Rooms. A table filled with all the delicacies of the season.

RATES REASONABLE.

WM. KENNEY, M. D., PRACTITIONER OF MEDICINE & SURGERY,

May be found during the day, when not professionally engaged, at Brooks & Lyman's Drug Store, at night, at the residence of Prof. E. Amende, on High st.

CHRIS. GROSCHE, BAKER & CONFECTIONER.

DEALER IN—Fruits, Cakes, Fancy Goods, Cigars and Tobacco, &c.

FRESH BREAD EVERY DAY.

One door above the Thurston House.

S. B. EWALT, LIVERY SALE AND COMMISSION STABLE.

High Street, Paris Kentucky.